

CORRECCIONES NATURAL 4º

MIÉRCOLES 11 MARZO

- NOTEBOOK:

ACTIVITIES

1. What are the most common illnesses?

The most common illnesses are the common cold, the flu and the chicken pox.

2. Name three differences between the common cold and the flu.

- The flu is a stronger illness than the common cold.
- The symptoms begin more quickly in the flu.
- The flu causes higher fever than the common cold.

3. If you get your hand burnt, what do you have to do?

You have to put it under cold running water.

4. If you get a big cut, what do you have to do?

You have to cover it with a cloth and apply pressure.

-ACTIVITY BOOK:

2

HOW ARE YOU FEELING?

1 Complete the Venn diagram.

sore throat low fever symptoms start slowly blocked nose high fever sneezing strong body aches coughing mild body aches symptoms start quickly

2 Complete the sentences using the words in the box.

chicken pox common cold influenza
respiratory system stronger

a The common cold affects the upper respiratory system.

b There is no vaccine for the common cold.

c The flu is a shorter name for influenza.

d The flu is a stronger illness than the common cold.

e The main symptom of chicken pox is a rash.

3 Identify the injuries and medical problems and what first aid should be given to each person.

- Cover it and apply pressure.
- Keep them still and support the injury.
- Put it under cold running water.
- Someone has a broken bone.
- Someone has a big cut.
- Someone has burnt their finger.

Someone has a big cut

Cover it and apply pressure.

Someone has a broken bone.

Keep them still and apply pressure

Someone has burnt their finger.

Put it under cold running water.

4 Match to make correct sentences.

a

People who suffer from asthma

call emergency services and try to get the help of an adult.

b

First aid is help we give to someone we need to take medicine to get better.

c

Sometimes, when we are ill

use an inhaler.

d

If you think an injury is serious,

when they are not near a doctor or hospital.